

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, May 25. 1708.

From the Paris Gazette, dated May 26.

Rome, April 23.

THE Pope's Galleys are sail'd from Civita Vecchia, with a Battalion of 600 Men, commanded by Don Frederick Colonna, who was nominated to that Command preferably to several other Persons of the first Quality, in Consideration of his Services to the Holy See in the Course of many Years. The Captains and Lieutenants of that Battalion are all Knights of Malta. The Galleys have Orders to make directly to Malta, where they will receive new Orders as Occasion may require; and will probably be employ'd against the Corsairs of Barbary, in Case the Advices that came of the Turks having form'd Designs against Malta, be not confirm'd. Yesterday the Pope gave Audience to Cardinal Grimani, who made new Instances to engage him to acknowledge the Princess of Wolfembutel for Queen of Spain, when she comes into Italy in her Way to the Archduke. But his Holiness declar'd to him, that he could not change his Resolution on that Subject: At the same time he made great Complaints, against the Sequestering of the Revenues of the Ecclesiasticks that are absent from the Kingdom of Naples and the Duchy of Milan, and against divers other Proceedings of the Imperial Officers in Derogation of his Spiritual and Temporal Authority.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 29.

From the Camp of the Imperialists at Muhlberg, May 21. All the Troops of the Empire that were expected at this Camp, are come hither, except 2 Battalions of Hanoverians which were quarter'd furthest off in the Westerwald; and we are so well posted that we fear nothing from the Enemy. General Thungen and the hereditary Prince of Baden Dourlach, are here. General Thungen having discover'd by an intercepted Letter, that the Elector of Bavaria and the Duke of Berwick design to make an early Expedition towards the Black-Forrest, with their Army computed at 50000 Men; has given Notice of it to the States of Swabia and the adjoining Circles, to the end they may hold themselves on their Guard, and put the Lines in the Black-Forrest in a good Condition of Defence.

Frankfort, May 23. The Saxon Troops have pass'd the Main, some above and some below this City, and are to Rendezvous at Maflaten. Some of the Emperours Forces are also arriv'd near Mentz viz. 2 Battalions of Baden, 2 of Thungen, and 2 of Wurtzburg: To Day or to Morrow 4 Regiments of Hessian Foot and 3 of Horse and Dragoons are expected there. And all these Troops are to serve on the Moselle. The Hanoverians that Winter'd in the Westerwald, are on the March for the Camp at Muhlberg, and will pass the Main here in their Way thither. The 20th the Elector of Bavaria arriv'd at Strasbourg: The Army he is to command is forming, and 'tis said will consist of 80 Battalions and 172 Squadrons; besides 39 Battalions left in Garrison in the Places of the upper and lower Alsace.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 29.

Leipsich, May 23. We can learn nothing certain yet, of the Time when the Saxon Troops, that are newly taken into the Service of the Allies, are to begin their March for the Army they are to serve in.

From the Amst. and Harl. Cour. dated May 29.

Cologne, May 25. The 6000 Saxons in the Pay of Great Britain and Holland, are come on this Side of Frankfort. The Hessian Troops are in full March, and with those 6000 Saxons are to lie encamp'd within 6 Leagues of Frankfort till the Arrival of Prince Eugene. The Elector of Hanover was expected Yesterday at Frankfort. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse-Cassel, who is now at the Baths of Slangenbad, will make the Campaign under Prince Eugene. A Camp is mark'd out at Bebbel, 4 Leagues from hence, for 15 or 16000 Men, English, Prossians, and Hanoverians that are to come from the Netherlands to serve on the Moselle. The Inhabitants of Trier are under great Apprehension, that on the Approach of the Allies the French will plunder and abandon that City. The 20th Instant, a Vessel from Holland laden with Ammunition, was sent up the Rhine from hence under a guard of 50 or 60 Men; The Guard were attack'd by a Party of the Enemy, but during the Dispute the Vessel proceeded safely on: To Day she was follow'd by another Vessel with the like Lading, and more are expected here with Stores, which will also be forwarded up the River. Count Rechteren, the Dutch Envoy, is establishing great Magazines at Coblenz, for the Forces of the Allies that are to act under Prince Eugene: And the French are doing the like at Saar-Louis, Mentz, and Thionville; and give out, that the Elector of Bavaria will Attempt some Enterprize of consequence on the Upper Rhine, thereby to break the Projects of the Allies on the Moselle. Prince Eugene is expected at Coblenz in a few Days. A Bridge of Boats is laid at Alicken on the Moselle, for the abovemention'd Troops of the Emperour, Hessians, and Saxons, and 10000 Palatines, to pass that River there.

Kinsale, May 16. Last Night arriv'd here the Fraackland-Pacquet-boat from Jamaica, the Master reports, that in the Latitude of 35 they met with 11 French Men of War, but got clear of them. There is no Advice yet of the Hastings, Arundel, and Shorram Men of War that went in Quest of a large French Privateer and the Dunbarton-Castle.

Plymouth, May 21. On the 19th Sail'd the Assurance to the Eastward, and Yesterday Sail'd the Medway, Exeter, Worcester, and Ludlow-Castle to Cruize.

Yarmouth, May 21. Yesterday pass'd through these Roads to the Southward 100 Sail of Laden Colliers without Convoy. This Day was sent into Port by the Glasgow a French Privateer call'd the La Fidele of 6 Guns and 4 Patereoes and 39 Men, belonging to Callais.

Harwich, May 22. Yesterday came in from the North the Norwich, Nonesuch and two other Men of War.

Deale,

Deale, May 23. Just now the Pembroke sail'd Westward, with all the outward-bound Ships under her Convoy. The Hampshire is also just now under Sail to joyn Rear-Admiral Baker's Squadron.
